Board Profile

I am a CEO and Director and in the last 10 years I have combined my previous business management experience with technology, sport and governance delivering a membership administration solution that is now used in over 20 countries and by nearly every sporting code in Australia. I have sat on multiple committees both for sport and non-sport, along with various advisory roles. In these roles I have established governance structures and driven commercial outcomes. In an executive capacity I am the Founder and CEO of TidyHQ. I have held various positions with a wide variety of member driven organisations.
